

Dear library supporter,

It is with great excitement that I invite you to join me in supporting the Bay City Public Library's Summer Reading Programs for youth, teenagers, and adults. We are raising funds to support the various events for the six weeks of summer programs which encourage literacy, personal growth, and professional development for all members of the community.

I invite you to join us as a sponsor and to be a part of this wonderful event. Committing early maximizes your visibility as a sponsor through your inclusion on all publicity for the event and a wide variety of other benefits.

Benefits of including early learners in your summer reading program:

- Young children will gain self-confidence and a love for reading, books, and the library
- The groundwork will be laid for children to become lifelong readers and learners
- Entire families will have the opportunity to participate in age-appropriate summer reading programs
- Completion of the program will give children a sense of accomplishment and belonging
- Parents and caregivers will gain knowledge about early literacy and learning activities at the library that they can continue at home
- The library may become a community destination for more families during the summer

The benefits of summer reading programming for children:

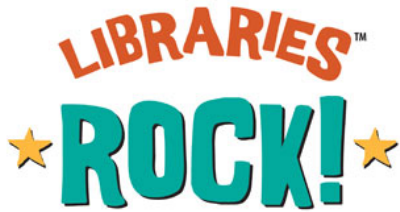

- Children are motivated to read.
- Children develop positive attitudes about reading, books, and the library.
- Children maintain their reading skills during summer vacation.
- Children have access to experiences that further their sense of discovery.
- Children have access to experiences through which they can learn to work cooperatively.

Benefits of including teenage programming in your summer reading program:

- Many teenagers find enjoyment in reading
- Having high levels of literacy are needed for higher education and future employment
- Most standardized tests that teenagers will take include a reading comprehension portion.

Benefits of including adult programming in your summer reading program:

- Many adults find enjoyment in reading
- Having high levels of literacy are needed for higher education and future employment
- The library may become a community destination for more adults.
- Networking opportunities are made available in a safe and public space.
- Adults have access to experiences that further their sense of community involvement.
